

Home Builders Association of Greater Charlotte Code of Conduct

Purpose

The Home Builders Association of Greater Charlotte (HBAGC) is committed to creating a professional, respectful, and inclusive environment at all HBAGC-sponsored events. This Code of Conduct ensures that members and participants uphold the highest standards of integrity and collaboration, reflecting positively on our industry and association. By following these principles, we foster a safe and productive space for networking, education, and growth.

Participation Requirement

Participation in HBAGC events is a privilege, and adherence to this Code of Conduct is a condition of that privilege. By attending any HBAGC-sponsored event, members and guests agree to comply with these standards and contribute to an atmosphere that reflects the values of professionalism, respect, and ethical conduct.

Standards of Behavior

Members and participants must not:

- Engage in harassment, intimidation, or discrimination of any kind, including verbal, physical, or visual conduct that creates an offensive or hostile environment.
- Use profane, abusive, threatening, or otherwise offensive language.
- Exhibit aggressive or disruptive behavior that interferes with the event or other participants.
- Discuss pricing, bids, or other competitively sensitive information, in compliance with antitrust laws.
- Share copyrighted materials without proper authorization or infringe on trademarks or intellectual property rights.
- Violate any applicable federal, state, or local laws during HBA events.

By refraining from these prohibited actions, members help maintain a professional environment that supports collaboration and the mission of the association.

Commitment

The HBAGC is dedicated to upholding these principles and expects all participants to share in this commitment. Together, we can maintain an environment that reflects the highest standards of our profession and strengthens the reputation of our association.
